

OPIOID

SEMINAR & TRAINING

MARCH, 19TH | 1-5PM
NORTHWESTERN COLLEGE

THE EPIDEMIC | OPTIONS FOR TREATMENT | A PERSONAL RECOVERY JOURNEY

Experts will share best practices for addressing the opioid crisis, treatment and recovery. Attendees will gain valuable knowledge regarding the scope of the opioid crisis on a county, state, and national level as well as a better understanding of effective treatments. Hear a personal story on the road to recovery and the role we all can play in making it a road to success for those who are on their journey.

SPEAKERS

Monica L. Wilke-Brown LMSW, IDPH,
Director of Iowa Opioid State targeted Response Project will provide an overview of the opioid crisis on a national and state level. provide information regarding the administration NARCAN® (naloxone HCl) for emergency treatment of a known or suspected opioid overdose.

John Martini will share his personal journey through recovery.

David G. Wolff, MD, FAAFP, FASAM, of Floyd Valley Regional Hospital will share his expertise regarding treatment options including MAT (medically assisted treatment) for opioid addictions including buprenorphine, Methadone, and Naltrexone.

Cheryl Buntsma CPS Compass Behavioral Health Services, PMP and Prescription Drug Take Back Day

CONTINUING EDUCATION

.4 CEUs for nurses, 4 CEHs for EMTs, NARCAN® certification
Certificates of completion will be provided for all attendees. The informational seminar is valuable for all community members, college students, and anyone working with addiction.

COST: $20 for all attendees

REGISTER by March 15th

For more information and to register:
online.nwciowa.edu/opioid

